

ANY MOMENT NOW

An old fool is just an idealized young one with the chance to die in the name of love another time-out-of-time before she actually, really does.

An older woman is just an aging young one who in her body holds the fiery memories of love's lost passions and yearns for more of the same... differently.

A wise, enlightened being is just another traveler on this sacred life journey building bridges between:

- the young and the old
- the feeling and the knowing
- the outer pull and the inner drive
- the dharmic and the irresistible
- the karmic and the forbidden

Waiting... waiting soulfully, choicefully, patiently... expecting Divine Grace to show up... any moment now.
